WORKPLACE VIOLENCE PREVENTION SEMINAR

A special half-day seminar presented by the Fresno Regional Workforce Development Board - Business Services Center

The need for workplace violence prevention training has never been greater. This unique seminar includes a multi-faceted approach to address various HR best practices to help make your workplace more secure.

Brenda Budke, Executive Director, at Sierra HR Partners, Les Van Meter, Retired Deputy IV, and Daniel Cervantes, Retired Sergeant with the Fresno County Sheriff's Office, will be presenting prevention techniques and strategies to establish clear policies for workplace violence.

Training topics include:

- Effective policy implementation for emergency response
- Recent trends/terrorism
- Situational awareness
- Active shooter defensive training
- Survival actions - what to do/what to expect when violence erupts
- Law Enforcement/Emergency Medical Services response and the aftermath
